

Mock Parliament Election

Name of the activity: Mock Parliament Election

Venue: Classroom (Grade VII B)

An election is an event in which one or more people make a choice, such as selecting representatives.

Elections are important in a democracy because they encourage participation: they provide a quick and simple form of participation by the citizens of a country in its governance and are an important tool for this purpose.

Election days come and go. But the struggle of the people to create a government which represents all of us and not just the one percent - a government based on the principles of economic, social, racial and environmental justice - that struggle continues.

In order to learn the scenario of Election, casting vote, campaign and results the students of Grade VII B conducted MOCK PARLIAMENT ELECTION.

The authorities are listed below.

S.NO	NAME OF THE CHILDREN	AUTHORITIES
1.	Prithiv Raj . M	Chief Election Commissioner
2.	Gowtham. L	Chief Election Officer
3.	Raghul. D	Assistant Election Officer
4.	Vishnu Prasad .S	Deputy Assistant Election Officer

Master Prithiv Raj.M, the Election Commissioner announced the date of nomination for the Ministers. The students became very enthusiastic and started to discuss about Election among themselves and proudly told others that they are glad to be a part of school election.

After the announcement of the nomination around 20 applications were received for SPL, ASPL, Prime Minister and Ministers for various departments.

Election commission announced symbols for candidates and the candidates started preparing their placards and posters for campaign.

Nominees went through the school campus to canvas for votes by holding their placards.

Finally election date has arrived, awareness about the "Right to Vote" reached the pupil. So the pupil were very keen in casting their vote.

After counting the Election Commission were about the announce the results,

The pulse rate of the nominee's and the crowd was high to know the results.

With this mock parliament election students came to know the following,

- What is election?
- How it should be conducted?
- What is the need for election Here comes the Banner which inculcates the importance of Election.

Nominees met Additional correspondent, Mrs. R. Chitra and Academic administrator, Mrs. R. Kavitha as a part of their campaign.

Here are the few young and energetic future generation Ministers who are actively indulged in the Election Campaign.

It's a place to determine the future leaders...
The ballot is stronger than the bullet.

Principal casted his vote. Yes.... Every vote counts.....
